PRESS RELEASE
11 July, 1989.

In a press statement issued today, the London-based Islamic Council strongly condemned the criminals who caused two explosions yesterday in the holy city of Mecca, close to Kaba, the House of God.

The statement said that the crime was all the more loathsome as it was committed on the eve of the annual pilgrimage (Hajj) when the entire area was packed with pilgrims from all over the world.

The explosions, which reportedly caused several casualties among innocent pilgrims is not only a most reprehensible crime but also an unforgiveable sacrilege.
